

FIRST STOP

London, England, where you'll be introduced to Hannah Moore, advocate for the abolition of slavery, and John Stott, one of the most influential Christians of the 20th century.

We should not ask, 'What is wrong with the world?' for that diagnosis has already been given. Rather we should ask, 'What has happened to salt and light?'

-John Stott

"Accustom yourself to look first to the dreadful consequences of failure; then fix your eye on the glorious prize which is before you, and when your strength begins to fail... let the animating view rekindle your resolution, and call forth in renewed vigor the fainting energies of your soul."

-William Wilberforce

Genius without religion is only a lamp on the outer gate of a palace; it may serve to cast a gleam of light on those that are without, while the inhabitant sits in darkness.

-Hannah Moore

SECOND STOP

May the strength of God pilot us, may the wisdom of God instruct us, may the hand of God protect us, may the word of God direct us. Be always ours this day and for evermore.

-Patrick

Saul, Northern Ireland, where under Patrick's distinctive missional leadership, the first Celtic community began and then multiplied around the world.

THIRD STOP

Geneva, Switzerland, to discover the missional dimensions of John Calvin the pastor and preaching and the women he worked with to welcome immigrants into the protection and freedom of the city.

"We should ask God to increase our hope when it is small, awaken it when it is dormant, confirm it when it is wavering, strengthen it when it is weak, and raise it up when it is overthrown."

-John Calvin

This experiential journey is a small group study for young adults in their 20s and 30s. You will be introduced to a deeper understanding of Christ by people, past and present, who have followed Jesus through adversity and into a vocational discipleship.

You will "meet" 5 historical mentors in London, Northern Ireland, and Geneva, receive the hospitality of local disciples of Jesus, and be personally mentored by Jim Longhurst and Janis Flint-Ferguson.

This trip is for you if you are interested in deepening your life in Christ, and understanding how to live out discipleship vocationally.

This is the fourth Clapham Servants trip. Past participants have found it to be a fast-paced week that continues to impact their lives for a lifetime.

Rev. Dr. Jim Longhurst has been a pastor for 42 years, including ten years as lead pastor of Crossroads Church, an international English-speaking church serving greater Geneva. Jim's passion has always been inspiring the next generation to ground their lives with a living faith in the Lord Jesus through the Scriptures.

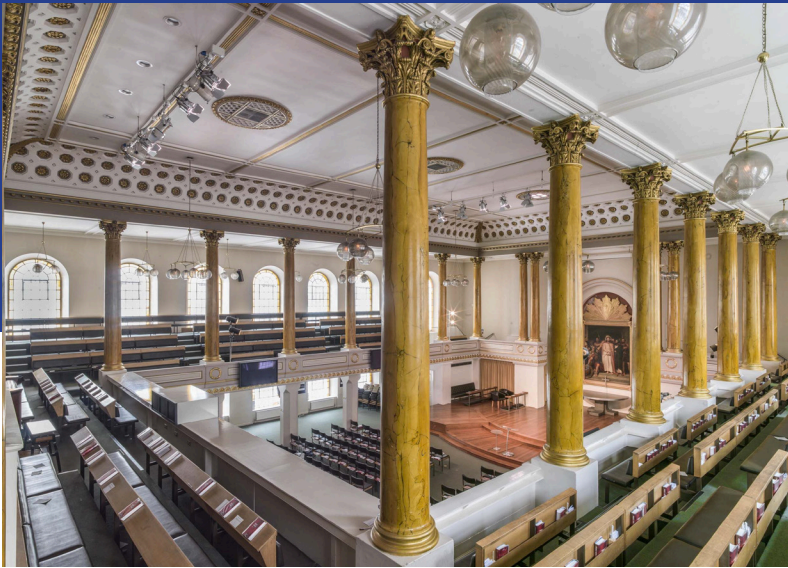

As a college professor Dr. Janis Flint-Ferguson spent 30 years teaching and mentoring young adults in English Studies and Education at Gordon College in Massachusetts. Her own interests in the study of Biblical narratives and values have served as foundational to discussions of faith in calling and vocation.
